

Offer your child kids' magazines, comics and books that are also available as a film.

Choose books together that arouse your child's interest or matches his or her free time activities.

Find a nice and comfortable spot for reading. Spend valuable time together and enjoy the moment.

Read to or together with your child every day. Then talk about it afterwards.

Read to your child in your native language, even if it is not German.

Regularly visit libraries and bookstores with your child. There you can find motivation for reading and books in different languages.

Be a role model and read in the presence of your child.

Arouse pupils' joy in reading!
